ERECTING NEW STANDS FOR BOISE FOOTBALL CLASSIC

When Idaho and Utah Play on Armistice Day at New Park Seating Arrangements Will Bring Them Close to Field of Action

Boise, Idaho, October 18.—New stands to seat 2500 are being added at Cody Park to make possible the staging of the Armistice Day football game between the universities of Idaho and Utah.

In 1920 and 1921 the big gridiron classic of southern Idaho was played at the state fair grounds where race track kept spectators 200 feet or more from the field of play. At Cody Park bleachers will closely parallel the gridiron. This is the old league ball grounds on Warm Springs Avenue, right on the street car line.

The change was made through the efforts of the Municipal Athletic Field association, incorporated by a group of sport lovers who secured a lease of the park and are holding it for the benefit of all amateur athletics in Boise. A campaign is now being closed to raise a fund of $3000 for the new stands.

Claude Gibson, manager of the Armistice Day game, has announced that all grandstand and bleacher seats will be sold at the flat rate of $1.50. A few boxes will be placed along the side lines, and box seats will be sold at $2 each.

The reason for the flat price is the large advance sale, as a heavy expense is undertaken for the game and no insurance is provided against loss even though the admission price is held as low as possible.

Even with the new stands the seating capacity at the park will be limited, so fans who desire to see the game from the best vantage point should order their tickets in advance. Mail orders addressed to Mr. Gibson at the Empire building, Boise, will be filled in order of receipt, all the best seats going first without partiality.

ONTARIANS DO NOT STOP, LOOK, LISTEN

From 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. 824 Cars Pass Over R. R. Crossing—Few Observe Precautions—Comparative Record for United States

Crossing watchmen for the railroad of the United States recently spent a day in checking the number of cars which cross their tracks. Here in Ontario from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. 824 cars and 17 wagons crossed their tracks and according to the report made to Agent H. O. Drane, very few of the drivers observed any precaution whatever. But Ontario folk were no worse than their fellow citizens elsewhere as was indicated in the following review of the crossing accidents reported by the Interstate Commerce Commission in the following bulletin which shows the following appalling list of deaths and injuries at railroad grade crossings on account of collisions between automobiles and trains and engines.

Year	Killed	Injured	Casualties
1915	1086	2981	4067
1916	1652	3859	5511
1917	1777	4356	6133
1918	1653	4182	5835
1919	1677	4400	6077
1920	1791	5077	6868
1921	1702	4818	6520

The first six months of 1922 show an increase of 4.2 per cent in persons killed and 13.4 per cent in persons injured over the first six months of 1921, revealing the fact that at the present rate the total number of persons killed and injured will exceed that of any previous year.

A check recently made at 300 grade crossings in the United States showed that of 306,306 vehicles which passed over the railroad grade crossings, only 6896 stopped for proper observations. 156,607 passed over crossings without any precaution being taken by the driver; 62,829 looked in both directions when approaching crossings, but did not make any safety stop to look and listen; 61,687 looked in one direction only; 26,453 went over crossings at over 20 miles per hour, and some of these at great speed. On the whole, only 2.1 per cent of the drivers took the necessary safety precaution to stop, look and listen.

A conservative estimate places the number of railroad and highway crossings in the United States at 250,000, the elimination of which would cost the prohibitive amount of twelve and one-half million dol-ars. The grade crossings will therefore remain for generations, while accidents must and can be avoided. Exercise of extreme caution on the part of the vehicle driver is necessary. The driver who stops when he comes to the crossing and looks in both directions sufficiently to satisfy himself beyond a doubt that no train is approaching, always gets over the crossing in safety.

CITATION IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF MALHEUR

In the matter of the estate of John A. Gregory, deceased. To Effie Miars, Marilla Yeck, Lizzie Wakefield, Jennie Wildman, Ethel Ryne, Olin Hicks, Helen Hicks, Guy Hicks and Harriet Hicks, being all the heirs and devisees of John A. ## World's Largest Reservoir

In about two years London's reservoir at Littleton will be the largest artificial reservoir in the world. It will hold water to supply London for a month, or 6,500,000,000 gallons. Its surface will cover 800 acres.

New Yorker's in Danger.
Prof. Edward Sapir, director of the anthropological division of the Victoria museum at Ottawa, Canada, in a lecture in New York, said: "New Yorkers are so busy they may lose the art of speech. Though a New Yorker myself, I am struck by several features of New York life. The first one is that it is very hard to talk to anyone here. Surrounded by a barrier of stenographers and telephone girls, business men have no time to sit down and be sociable. The primitive man with his simple mode of living was far better off than we are with all our modern efficiency. New Yorkers are fast losing the art of proper speech."

Junior Red Cross Praised for Work Influencing Peace

The advancing standard of the Junior American Red Cross made two outstanding gains during the last year—one in the field of domestic activity, which is rapidly linking up the schools with the Junior program, the other a gain of a dozen countries in Europe pledged to organize Juniors on the lines of the American organization. For this accomplishment the American Juniors earned the hearty endorsement of the League of Red Cross Societies for its "creation of an international spirit of human solidarity among young people with a view to preparation of a new civilization for peace."

The forthcoming annual report of the American Red Cross for the year ended June 30, 1922, will show 24,528 schools enrolled, with a total of 4,483,845 pupils wearing the "I Serve" button of the American Junior Red Cross—the badge of unselfish service earned by each individual member through personal sacrifice.

In international school correspondence 736 classes and schools engaged in friendly communication with 623 schools in European countries, 90 schools in United States territories, 13 in South Africa and 10 in a miscellaneous list of foreign countries. The work in foreign fields in establishing playgrounds, school libraries, sewing and manual training classes, homes for war orphans, school reconstruction in devastated areas, encouraging community gardens and many other activities was financed through the National Children's Fund raised by the Juniors at a cost of $388,237.40. During the year $56,922.79 was contributed toward the fund, in which on July 1 there was a balance of $201,361.58.
